Sheriff Ellis Picks C.O.P. Cozzolino . . .

IN THE VALLEY OF THE MOON

Well. . . Well. . . Well. . . The City of Sonoma has lost the best Chief of Police since they incorporated. . . And they will soon be looking for an entire new police force if they don't cut the working hours and raise the wages pretty soon. . .

We were happy to learn that Sheriff John Ellis picked Chief of Police Joe Cozzolino to fill the position of Undersheriff. . . Yes it's the City of Sonoma's loss but the County of Sonoma's gain. . .

Moonbeams told you good readers several months ago that this would happen, because we knew that the Sheriff wanted the best officer in the state and we also knew that "Joe" was the best man for the position of Undersheriff. . .

Now with this new team of "John & Joe" and with a little cooperation from the Sonoma County Board of Supervisors, it won't be long until Sonoma County will once again be in a position to boast of its fine law enforcement. . .

Yes Sonoma County has growing pains and more people are demanding more police protection and service. . . So . . . The Board of Supervisors will soon have to remove the five hitching posts in front of the courthouse and replace them with a Jet Strip. . .

Thank you,
The Publisher
